Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. * * * It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hobart A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D. and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Accident to Electric Car.

Eleven persons are dead, a score seriously and many others slightly injured as the result of the overturning of a crowded electric car at Moores Corner, in East Providence, R. I., early yesterday morning. More than 100 young men and woman, who had spent the evening at Crescent Park, a pleasure resort on the Providence river, six miles below Providence, were on a chartered car returning to their homes It is believed that two of the injured will die.

The wreck occurred on the subdivision line of the Rhode Island Company.

The motoman in charge of the car, W. J. Laucher, of Olneyville, although experienced in his calling, was unfamiliar with the road, over which he was traveling for the first time. Laucher was put in charge of the car at the solicitation of the passengers, members of a Catholic society, which had been to Crescent Park for an outing. The car, an open one of heavy build, was crowded with young men and women.

Fog prevented a clear view of the road ahead and the motorman, unable to see far ahead of the car, and unaware of the sharp curve below, allowed the car to coast rapidly down the hill. Suddenly he felt the car swing into the curve, and, realizing the peril, applied the brakes and reversed the power. The weight of a number of men on the running board and the momentum sufficed to derail the car and throw it into the road 20 feet from the track.

Seven of the passengers were pinioned beneath the car and instantly killed. Those who were able began the work of rescue.

A large joist was utilized as a lever, a pile of stones forming the fulcrum, and the car was raised from the ground just enough to permit the escape of its imprisoned passengers. Two persons had succeeded in escaping when the joist broke under the weight of the car, and the heavy vehicle fell back, killing two of the injured.

The rescuers again raised the car from the ground, and, by building a pile of heavy stones, kept it in position while the dead and injured were removed.

Two of those taken out had sustained fractured skulls and died within an hour.

Killed in Runaway Accident.

Miss Millie Wheeler, 35 years of age, of Fifty-fourth street and Broadway, New York was instantly killed in Morristown, N. J, yesterday in a runaway accident. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Aldrich, living in apartments at the San Remo Hotel, New York, and Miss Maude Munroe, of New York who were with Miss Wheeler in the carriage, were seriously injured. The horse was driven by Miss Munroe. When in front of the residence of John O. H. Pitney, on South street, it became frightened at an empty automobile that was standing in the gutter awaiting repairs. On the front seat with Miss Munroe was Miss Wheeler, and in the rear seat were Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich. The horse took fright at the automobile, in the gutter, and made a plunge forward, and then shied to the left of the road. Realizing the danger, Miss Munroe made an effort to get a better grip on the reins, but failed; lost her balance and fell out of the carriage to the ground. More frightened at this, the animal lunged ahead, swinging the carriage from one side of the road to the other. Miss Wheeler attempted to jump from the buggy. She stood up in the wagon for a second, and then leaped out backwards. Her head struck the hard macadam road, fracturing the base of her skull. She died within a few minutes after striking the ground. Mrs. Aldrich was next to jump, and fell on her side, sustaining several ugly gashes in the forehead. Aldrich was more fortunate in his leap from the carriage, and apart from being badly shaken up was uninjured.

Miss Wheeler had gone to Morristown on Saturday to visit Miss Munroe. Miss Wheeler was a daughter of the late A. C. Wheeler ("Nym Crinkle"), the noted dramatic critic.

Arraigned His Enemies.

At the close of the communion services in the Lutheran Church at Middletown, Md., yesterday morning, the pastor, Rev. M. L. Beard, who recently received a unanimous call to become pastor of the congregation at Thurmont, Frederick county, announced to the large assemblage, which filled every pew in the church, that that would possibly be the last time he would administer the holy communion to those present as pastor of the congregation. He then proceeded to denounce in a most severe manner those who, he declared, were responsible for his leaving. He said that Satan had put in into the heart of Judas Iscariot to betray the Saviour and so had he put it into the heart of several members of this congregation to concoct a diabolical plot for his betrayal. He declared that he had been ordered from the organ platform by a wave of the hand, had been branded as a liar in the presence of his council; that he and his family had been traduced and slandered by a few and that because he was a minister of the gospel he was compelled to desist from resenting it. The pastor said that while his ministerial course had been vindicated by the recent large congregational meeting, and that notwithstanding he had been assurred that if he remained his salary would be paid in full and possibly increased, he thought it best to leave. He would not go, however, until those responsible for the trouble in the congregation would prefer the charges that they declared they held against him, so that his congregation, by vote, should either pronounce him guilty or vindicate him. He closed by asking the present council, which was recently elected in his favor, to remain a few moments.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn, fought nasal catarrh. He writes; "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', Druggists.

Narrow Escape of Aeronaut.

While making a trial flight with his airship, at an amusement resort at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday, Lincoln Beachy, the young San Francisco aeronaut, narrowly escaped death by the collapsing of the frame work of the car.

The airship was 500 feet in the air when the accident occurred, and the daring young navigator was saved from being dashed to the ground only by the narrowest margin. He managed to guide the airship until it was but fifty feet above the ground, and although it fell that distance he escaped uninjured except for a few bruises. The airship was partly wrecked.

Everything was running smoothly when, without warning, the two bamboo poles at the center of the car near the engine snapped in two. This caused the entire framework to double up like a jack-knife. The rapidly revolving propeller was hurled into the forward end of the balloon, cutting a big opening in it. The escaping gas caused the car to sway to and fro, and it was with difficulty that Beachy remained in the cage.

The car started to drop slowly, and, the rudder being useless, it was blown over the park in the opposite direction from which it was headed. The hydrogen gas which filled the balloon poured down upon Beachy nearly smothering him. Fortunately, the gas escaped slowly, and there was enough in the balloon to support the car until it was within fifty fret of the ground.

The descent had been gradual, but, owing to the swaying of the car and the fumes of gas, Beachy was in constant danger of death.

Loving Cup for Judge Nicol.

Judge C. E. Nicol closed his last term of court in Warrenton Saturday, and hereafter the counties of Fauquier, Loudoun and Rappahannock will be presided over by Judge E. S. Turner. Friday evening J. A. C. Keith gave a handsome dinner to his brother members of the bar in honor of Judge Nicol at which steps were taken looking to the organization of a local bar association. At the close of court Saturday a silver loving cup was presented to Judge Nicol by the members of the Fauquier bar, and resolutions of respect and esteem were adopted by the members of the bar.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 4, 1906.

THE announcement of the death of Senator A. P. Gorman, which occurred at his home in Washington at 9:16 o'clock this morning, was made in the Capitol today. Although it was known that he had for some time been in feeble health, his death was a surprise and startled every one who heard of it and there were general expressions of regret. Senator Gorman had for over a quarter of a century been one of the most prominent figures in the country. His political star rose years ago when a republican majority in the United States was hatching force bills and other schemes for the purpose of degrading people south of Mason and Dixon's line. Mr. Gorman, then a young man, entered the Senate at an opportune time and immediately took issue with the foremost men in that body. He manifested his ability to cope with any of them, and those politically hostile to him soon realized that they had to exercise care as to where they took hold of him. By his untiring efforts and ability he turned the edge of much that was destined to further humiliate the southern country, and his services to the democratic party have been unvaluable. The people of Maryland a few years ago sent him back to the Senate where his genius had been so patent in previous years. He was undoubtedly one of the ablest men this country has produced in recent years, and his name will go down in history as a bright star in the galaxy of statesmen. He was a true friend of the South, loyal to his friends, courteous to all and a man who so deported himself as to win the respect even of his political enemies.

THE report of Commissioners of Labor Neill and James B. Reynolds, concerning the conditions of meat packing at Chicago has been at last made public officially. The investigators find that the filth of the Chicago stock yards is indiscribably shocking, the slaughter houses being dark and unventilated, and the meat being unprotected from contact with diseased workmen. No inspection of meat is made after it has passed the post mortem, or leaves the killing bed. The federal inspectors may condemn but not destroy diseased meat, while the local inspectors are said to be men of bad reputation. The commissioners find that the whole inspection service is organized to enable packers to sell meat abroad, and that home consumers are in no wise protected. Meats which have been spoiled in transit are returned to be worked into sausages, or treated with preservatives and dyes, etc., for the local market. Diseased meat was found in the same room with good meat intended for canning. Potted ham appeared to consist of skin and other pieces of hog meat not used for legitimate purposes. The report shows that a most horrible and disgusting state of affairs exists at the packing houses.

A RAILROAD rate bill, stronger in several details than the measure passed by either the House or Senate, is now assured as the result of the work of the conferees, who completed their deliberations Saturday afternoon with an all-round agreement, which will receive the indorsement of the two Houses early this week. Every important amendment placed in the bill by the Senate remains, with the single exception of that giving the Interstate Commerce Commission jurisdiction over sleeping-car companies. The similar provision relating to express companies was retained, despite the alleged agreement between Senator Aldrich and Representative Hepburn that it should go out in conference. The publicity given to this alleged agreement by the newspapers and Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, no doubt saved the express companies' provision. The ridiculous anti-pass amendment of the Senate was re-written by the House conferees in sweeping language; which forbids the issuing of passes to anyone, and in this form it was accepted by the Senate conferees. The amendment making pipe lines common carriers was also re-written so as to make it apply only to oil.

IGNORING democratic protests and an appeal from Senator Bacon showing that the government could save $30,000,000 by purchasing canal supplies in foreign markets, the Senate Saturday passed a resolution providing that all purchases be made in the United States unless the President deems the prices unreasonable or extortionate. The resolution was passed, 39 to 16, a party vote, except that Senator Teller voted with the republicans. The democrats sought in many forms, but in vain, to secure the adoption of an agreement that would commit Congress against the protective system. The only amendment adopted was suggested by Senator Pettus, providing that bids shall be from the lowest responsibile bidders. A resolution by Senator Money directing that in purchasing domestic articles ascanal supplies no greater price should be paid than is paid for similar articles when exported and sold broad was voted down, 18 to 34. Truly the trust have the people by the throat

AS THE outcome of the arrest of a Pole in Portland Oregon, for an assault upon several Russians, local detectives have learned of the existence there of a large body of Russian nihilists who, it is alleged, have been plotting the assassination of President Roosevelt, simply awaiting the accumulation of sufficient funds before sending a deputation to Washington to carry out the scheme. So much licenee is given to nihilists, anarchists and socialists in this country now that the worse tragedy that could happen would not be a surprise.

THE SENATE seems greatly perplexed as to whether Senator Smoot should be kicked out by a two-thirds vote or merely by a majority. The House several years ago, it will be remembered, did not stand on much ceremony when it "fired" Representative Roberts because he was a Mormon—but Roberts was a democrat and Smoot is a republican!

From Washington.

Washington, June 4.

Speaker Cannon was an early arrival at the Whith House today, Matters of legislation were discussed by the Speaker and the President, but nothing relating to the consultation was given out for publication. Asked about the beef report and the probable date of adjournment the Speaker said: "I am not prophesying when we will adjourn, but we may get away some little time before the first of July. As to that beef report, all I have to say about that is that we all want a law that will correct the evils, if evils exist. There is no desire on the part of any one of the three co-ordinate branches of the Government to do anything that will not be perfectly fair to all concerned.

The State Department received a dispatch today from U. S. Minister Combs, at Guatemala City, stating that an armed revolutionary force in addition to those which have already invaded the country has entered Guatemala from Salvador. This dispatch indicates that the movement to overthrow President Cabrera's administration is progressing in Guatemala.

Mr. D. J. Hoge and Mr, C. C. Gaber, president and secretary, respectively, of the Evangelical and Prohibition Association, of Loudoun county, Va., accompanied by Congressman Rixey today called on the President and invited him to attend the camp meeting to be held at Purcellville next August. The President said that other engagements would prevent his accepting the invitation.

Little else than the death of Senator Gorman is talked of about the Capitol today and deep regrets of his death were expressed on all sides. He will be greatly missed in the Senate and especially on the democratic side, of which he was the real leader.

Mr. Frank Hume continues extremely ill at his home in this city, and his family and friends are greatly concerned as to his condition.

Because he is unable to support her, Marguerite Zelaya, nee Baker, wife of the young son of the President of Nicaragua, after a brief honeymoon, has left him and returned to her parents in Washington. Dr. Baker, the young lady's father, says that no present action is contemplated to secure a legal separation, and that, so far as he knows, the young man did not abuse his daughter. Her sole reason for leaving him was that he could not provide for her. It is supposed that this is because President Zelaya disavowed the marriage, and failed to send the necessary funds to his son.

The conference report on the railway rate bill will be rejected by the Senate unless it is withdrawn. The republican leaders of the upper body so informed the Senate conferees today. There is especial objection to the incorporation in the bill of new matter The provision directing connection with lateral lines is an instance. Mr. Tillman is opposed to this amendment and several others, and he is using his influence with his fellow conferees formally ask tomorrow to withdraw the report from further consideration.

Henry Jackson Bright, a retired merchant, died in Washington this morning. He was one of the Guiteau jurors and was born in Alexandria.

The Railroad Rate Bill.

The conferees on the railroad-rate bill reached an agreement Saturday afternoon and when they adjourned the word was given out that in all essential details the measure agreed upon is practically as it passed the Senate.

Immediately after the conferees signed the report, at 4 o'clock, it was presented to both Houses. It shows that the Senate receded from six amendments, two of which merely change the numbers of sections, while twenty-eight of its amendments were retained verbatim. The remaining seventeen amendments were redrafted and retained under different phraseology.

In making his report to the Senate, Mr. Tillman gave notice that he would urge prompt action in that body. As soon as disposed of there it is believed it will be acted upon by the House with the utmost dispatch.

The amendment prohibiting passes was entirely redrafted, made much more stringent, all excepted classes being eliminated, and to either issue or receive free transportation being made a misdemeanor.

The Senate receded from what is known as the "jimcrow" amendment, which declared that equally good service and accommodions should be given to all persons paying the same compensation for interstate transportation of passengers. The provision was stricken out of the bill.

The several Senate amendments (20 in number) relating to the publication of schedules of rates and charges of all kinds were agreed to.

Explosion of Powder Mill.

Newcastle Pa., June 4.—It is reported that a big powder mill ten miles west of here between Hills Lake and Lowellville, blew up about nine o'clock this morning. No details are yet obtainable, although several men are reported killed and injured. The plant was built two years ago.

An eastbound fast freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was wrecked at Ingles Switch, near Harpers Ferry, yesterday morning. Seventeen cars were piled up and much valuable merchandise, consisting of lard, packed in barrels and buckets, and meat, were strewn over the meadowland below.

At Clintonville, Pa., yesterday Bertha Colliugwood, aged 14 years, was bitten on the calf of the leg by a large copperhead snake. The occurrence was witnessed by Henry Corbett, an oil-well pumper, who knew the bite would prove fatal unless attended to immediately. He bound the girl's leg above and below the wound and carried her into the pump station, which is equipped with a suction gas pump. Placing the wound over the end of the pipes which admits the air, he held the girl there until all the poison had been sucked out. Physicians say the resourcefulness of Corbett saved the girl's life and she will suffer no ill effects from the bite.

Alexander Dipaolo, a well-known hotel man and real estate dealer, of Raritan, was shot through the head Saturday afternoon by Miss Flarindo Illorio, on the front portico of her residence in Somerville, N. J. Two bullets penetrated his brain, and he died in the Somerset Hospital an hour later. Miss Illorio is locked up in the county jail. She says she shot the hotel man to avenge a wrong. Dipaolo she asserts, had deceived her and then cast her off. He had recently tried to make up with her, and at the time of the shooting, according to the woman's statement, he knocked at the door of her residence and wanted her to admit him to the house to talk over their troubles.

Memorial Day was observed under the auspices of the Warren Memorial Association at Front Royal, on Saturday. After the services in the cemetery, Capt. John Lamb, of Richmond, presented to the veterans the crosses of honor by Warren Rifles Chapter U. D. C. Congressman James Hay introduced the orator, Mr. J. T. Petty, of Washington.

Daniel Andrews, an aged farmer near Richmond, was run down by a Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac train yesterday morning and instantly killed. Mr. Andrews was seen by one of his neighbors a few minutes prior to the accident. Immediately after the passage of the Washington train the old man's body was observed in the middle of the track terribly mutilated.

De Witt Sigmon, aged twenty years, yesterday shot and killed his sweetheart, Miss Sallie Shively, in the latter's home near Roanoke. Sigmon says the girl was handling a pistol, and in trying to take it from her the weapon exploded, the ball entering the girl's breast. Sigmon summoned a doctor and gave himself up to the sheriff. The girl was dead when the physician reached her. Sigmon is in the Roanoke jail.

Confederate Memorial Day was observed at Warrenton Saturday afternoon. The exercises were held in the town hall, the speakers being introduced by Moses M. Green, a member of the legislature. George Latham Fletcher was the orator of the occasion. The battalion of cadets of the Bethel Military Academy were present in a body. Mrs. Mary Lee, daughter of General Robert E. Lee, was present, and before the services began a reception was held in her honor, at which were present all the surviving members of the famous Black Horse Cavalry.

Wholesale Killing.

Vienna, June 4.—The authorities are much interested in a wholesale killing which occurred last week at Szilzehg, Hungary. A quarrel about grazing rights arose between the peasants of that district and a landowner named Labonc. The refusal of Labonc to allow the peasants to use his land caused the enraged men to make an attack upon him. Labone was severely beaten. The peasants then seized the landlord and three of his servants and buried them head downward in the ground leaving their legs protruding. A great many peasants have been arrested and the authorities are now trying to fix the blame for the outrage on those who were responsible for the outbreak.

CHICAGO STOCK YARDS.

President Roosevelt sent the following message concerning conditions in the stock yards of Chicago to Congress today:

The Senate and House of Representatives:

I transmit herewith the report of Mr. James Bronson Reynolds and Commissioner Charles P. Neill, the special committee whom I appointed to investigate into the conditions in the stock yards of Chicago and report thereon to me. This report is of a preliminary nature. I submit it to you now because it shows the urgent need of immediate action by the Congress in the direction of providing a drastic and thoroughgoing inspection by the federal government of all stock yards and packing houses and of their products, so far as the latter enter into interstate or foreign commerce. The conditions shown by even this short inspection to exist in the Chicago stock yards are revolting. It is imperatively necessary in the interest of health and of decency that they should be radically changed. Under the existing law it is wholly impossible to secure satisfactory results. * * * * The report shows that the stock yards and packing houses are not kept even reasonably clean, and that the method of handling and preparing food products is uncleanly and dangerous to health. Under existing law the national government has no power to enforce inspection of the many forms of prepared meat food products that are daily going from the packing houses into interstate commerce. Owing to an inadequate appropriation the Department of Agriculture is not even able to place inspectors in all establishments desiring them. The present law prohibits the shipment of uninspected meats to foreign countries, but there is no provision forbidding the shipment of uninspected meats in interstate commerce, and thus the avenues of interstate commerce are left open to traffic in diseased or spoiled meats. If, as has been alleged on seemingly good authority further evils exist, such as the improper use of chemicals and dyes, the government lacks power to remedy them. A law is needed which will enable the inspectors of the general government to inspect and supervise from the hoof to the can the preparation of the meat food product. The evil seems to be much less in the sale of dressed carcasses than in the sale of canned and other prepared products; and very much less as regards porducts used at home.

In my judgment the expense of the inspection should be paid by a fee levied on each animal slaughtered. If this is not done, the whole purpose of the law can at any time be defeated through an insufficient appropriation; and whenever there was no particular public interest in the subject it would be not only easy but natural thus to make the appropriation insufficient. If it were not for this consideration I should favor the government paying for the inspection.

The alarm expressed in certain quarters concerning this feature should be allayed by a realization of the fact that in no case, under such a law, will the cost of inspection exceed 8 cents per head.

I call special attention to the fact that this report is preliminary, and that the investigation is still unfinished. It is not yet possible to report on the alleged abuses in the use of deleterious chemical compounds in connection with canning and preserving meat products, nor on the alleged doctoring in this fashion of tainted meat and of products returned to the packers as having grown unsalable orunusable from age or from other reasons. Grave allegations are made in reference to abuses of this nature.

Let me repeat that under the present law there is practically no method of stopping these abuses if they should be discovered to exist. Legislaion is needed in order to prevent the possitility of all abuses in the future. If no legislation is passed, then the excellent results accomplished by the work of this special committee will endure only so long as the memory of the committee's work is fresh, and a recrudescence of the abuses is absolutely certain.

I urge the immediate enactment into law of provisions which will enable the Department of Agriculture adequately to inspect the meat and meat-food products entering into interstate commerce and to supervise the methods of preparing the same, and to prescribe the sanitary conditions under which the work shall be performed. I therefore commend to your favorable consideration and urge the enactment of substantially the provisions known as Senate amendment No. 29 to the act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, as passed by the Senate, this amendment being commonly known as the Beveridge amendment.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The White House, June 4, 1906.

The report of Messrs. Reynolds and Neill shows that conditions in the packing houses are deplorable and calculated to disgust every one who has heretofore used Chicago meat products. Hogs which have died on cars are thrown on platforms where they remain for an unnecessarily long time before being removed. The places where the various meat products are prepared are uncleanly, and consumers, after reading the manner in which the meat is handled and the dirt which necessarily enters into what is put upon the market will be inclined to boycott all such products in future. The sanitary condition in the packing houses are most abominable Men and women are compelled to use the same conveniences, the lavatories being in close proximity to places where food is handled. Meat scraps, which enter into sausage, potted ham, &c., are shoveled from dirty floors which are being expectorated upon all the time.

Today's Telegraphic News

Death of Senator Gorman.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—Senator Gorman died at 9:16 at his residence at 1432 K street, northwest, today. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made, as all is excitement at the home. His last illness was of several weeks' duration. A fatal termination had been generally predicted, although the immediate members of the Senator's family seemed to have been hopeful to the last.

At nine o'clock, Senator Gorman was stricken with an attack of the heart similar to a series of attacks he suffered a week ago. Dr. Charles W. Brown was summoned, but the Senator expired before relief could be administered. Senator Gorman was conscious until stricken with the last attack, and had taken some nourishment the hour before

A week ago Sunday he suffered an attack, but recovered under prompt medical attention. After that time his condition improved and yesterday plans were made to remove him to his country home at Laurel, Maryland.

There were present at the bedside until he expired the Senator's wife, Miss Ada Gorman, a daughter, and a trained nurse. The Senator had not been out of the house since January 16. His ailment was diagnosed as stomach trouble with heart complications.

The Capitol was notified of the death shortly after its occurrence and a number of prominent persons were soon calling or sending messages of condolence and regret. The burial will take place at Laurel, Md., probably on Wednesday.

Political and naval circles in Washington think that one of the strongest candidates for the vacancy in the Senate created by Senator Gorman's death will be Rear Admiral Schley, the hero of Santiago. Rear-Admiral Schley is a staunch democrat, a native and citizen of Maryland, and was spoken of as a candidate for the presidency after the Spanish-American war. Governor Warfield, under his constitutional option, may not appoint a successor to Senator Gorman until the next regular session of the Maryland legislature, which convenes in January 1908, selects a Senator. It is understood that Governor Warfield himself has senatorial aspirations, which would be favored in 1908 by his appointment in the meantime of a notable democrat who would fill the office with honor and at the same time not develop such marked political popularity as would jeopardize Governor Warfield's own chance with the legislature at its next meeting. The Gorman term expires March 4th, 1909.

Baltimore, June 5.—The news of the death of Senator Gorman was received in this city with profound regret. A persistent report is circulated to the effect that Governor Warfield may appoint State Senator Arthur Pue Gorman, jr., to succeed his father in the United States Senate. It is pointed out that such a step would once more restore harmony in the democratic councils of Maryland, and that it might, incidentally, be the means of oringing a second four-year term to the present chief executive of the State. This would be decidely pleasing to the "regular," but would be bitterly opposed by the "Warfield democrats" the so-called reform element in the party, which looks apparently for the appointment of William Shepard Bryan, the present Attorney General.

Miners and Guards Killed.

Steubenville, O., June 4.—Two guards and two miners were shot down and seriously wounded last night at the Glenn's Run Coal Company's mines. The attack was made on the guards from ambush, while they were being transferred from Plum Run to Bradley, where an effort was being made to have them start the mines. There were sixty-three guards. It is estimated that the attacking party numbered 250. The guards have been employed at the Plum Run mines, which have been successfully operated with non-union men. Today it was decided to start the Bradley mines, a few miles distant. The guards were marching in single file through a ravine when a single shot startled them into a halt. The shot was followed by a fusillade of bullets. A dozen guards dropped. Two were hurt, others fled for safety. They returned the fire and the attacking party of the strike sympathizers fell back. The guards retreated to Dillonville, bearing two wounded men. They declare that they saw two miners borne away by their comrades and believe they were killed. Sheriff Vorhees was immediately call up for help.

Assassin Buried.

Madrid, June 4.—The body of Manuel Morales the would-be assassin of King Alfonso, who killed himself, to escape capture, at Terrejon de Ardos, was buried here today after an autopsy had been held. The corpse was exhibited yesterday at Buen Sucese Hospital for a short time as the authorities believed this would be a good way to allay the indignation of the people. The sight of the assassin's body, however, infuriated rather than calmed the populace and it was soon necessary to close the hospital doors because of the pressure of great crowds of people who gathered and wished to take the body to hang it in front of the house from which Morales made his attempt upon the lives of the King and Queen. Numerous compromising documents have been found in the rooms occupied by Morales at Barcelona. One letter which arrived there from Lisbon, addressed to Morales, is full of mysterious signs. The police now believe that there was a widespread international plot against Alfonso. In all there were 103 victims of Morales' attempt on the King. This includes one person who has gone mad since the bomb throwing.

Young Woman Drowned.

New York, June 4.—Miss Bessie Hoops, of No. 8 Washington Place, daughter of a retired merchant, who has a summer home at Mount Kisco, New York, was drowned in the Hudson river, early today, while being rowed to the shore at the foot of West 157th street, from the yacht Drone. Three men and another girl who were in the dory with Miss Hoops, and which upset, narrowly escaped death in the strong current. The party had been out in the yacht Drone for a sail up the Hudson Sunday and were returning home when the accident happened. Miss Hoops was aged 26.

A Western Wonder

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', Druggists. 50c and $1.00. More Trouble at Cananea.

Naco, Arizona, June 4.—Renewed trouble broke out at Cananea, last night between the striking Mexicans of Col. W. C. Greene's mine and the Rurales under Col. Kosterlitzky. Five rioters were killed and thirteen injured. One of the Rurales was shot but not seriously injured. The fight was resumed shortly before the arrival of 200 Mexican soldiers from Hermosillo. All of the American women of the town and many women of the higher class of Mexicans are quartered in the home of Col. Greene, which is under heavy guard. Eight leaders of the Cananea rioters were executed yesterday morning by Col. Kosterlitzky The rioters were lined up in front of a stone wall a short distance over the hills of Convillo, and killed by a volley from the rifle of the Rurales under the command of Kosterlitsky, who, it is reported cried as the shots were fired "Vive le Mexico, so perish all traitors." Without fear the doomed men replied as one man: To h— with the government; away with Mexico." The arrival of Col. Kosterlitsky with his troops had more to do with the quelling of the riot than the presence of American soldiers on the scene. It is said that Cananea did not burn and is not burning. The pecuniary loss of the Cananea consolidated Mining Company is estimated at $500,000 and work will be resumed within a week.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 4.—The important buying that has been in the market for the last three days was in evidence again this morning, and a number of stocks were taken as offered at advancing price limits. Commission houses reported an improved demand. Government bonds unchanged.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, June 4.

SENATE.

News of the death of Senator Gorman occasioned the most profound sorrow in and around the Senate where he was for so long one of its most popular members.

The formal announcement of the sad fact was made to the Senate by Senator Bailey, of Texas.

The session was opened by a brief prayer by Rev. U. S. G. Pierce, of the Unitarian Church, in which he made reference to Senator Gorman's death and the sorrow that it had occasioned to the hearts of his colleagues.

Senator Bailey then arose and in a voice full of emotion said: "In the absence of the surviving Senator from Maryland, it is my painful duty to announce the death of Senator Gorman. The end which awaits us all found him this morning at his home in this city, surrounded by his family, he passed from the strife and bitterness of this world to a better one. I would ask this Senate, of which he was for so long an honored and honorable member, to hold a public funeral in this chamber except for the fact that he himself has asked that it be a private one. In obedience to his wish, I will refrain from making that request, and ask the adoption of the resolutions I now send to the clerk's desk. At some later date, his colleague who did not learn of Senator Gorman's death until too late to be present, here, will request that a day be set apart for suitable action in respect to his memory."

The resolutions were at once adopted by the Senate which then immediately adjourned until tomorrow.

HOUSE.

The House passed the bill creating a new port of entry at Port Arthur, Texas.

The House, without discussion, unanimously passed the Burton bill to preserve Niagara Falls, by limiting the amount of water to be diverted for power purposes.

Morales Ends His Own Life.

The capture and suicide Saturday night at Torrejon de Ardos of Manuel Morales, the chief suspect in the bomb outrage against King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, ends another dramatic chapter to the incidents surrounding the royal wedding.

Morales was recognized in the little town of Torrejon de Ardos, midway between Madrid and Alcala. A guard sought to detain him, but Morales, drawing a revolver, shot the guard dead. Then he turned to flee, but a number of the inhabitants of the town were upon him, and turning the revolver upon himself he sent a shot in the region of his heart, expiring a few minutes later.

It was eight o'clock Saturday evening when Morales, disguised in the garb of a workingman, entered the station at Torrejon de Ardos. He asked a child, who was in charge of the office, the time the next train would depart for Barcelona. He then sought food in a nearby shop. His Catalonian accent at first attracted attention to him.

The stranger sought to take a road leading into the country, but the watchman intercepted him and demanded to know his identity. Morales declined to give this, whereupon a guard arrested him.

Instantly Morales drew a revolver from his pocket and fired, the guard falling dead. Morales started up the road, but a small group of villagers ahead barred his passage. Then, turning, he deliberately pointed the weapon to his heart, fired and pitched forward in the roadway.

An examination of the pockets of the dead man showed that they contained $36 in money and a small supply of bread and cheese, but there was nothing in them that would give a clue as to his identity.

Senor Cuesta, proprietor of the hotel from the balcony of which Morales threw the bomb, viewed the body yesterday morning and completely identified it as that of his recent guest.

Senor Morales, father of the anarchist, was seen at Barcelona yesterday. He is the proprietor of a prosperous factory there. He has a strong individuality and is highly respected. Answering the questions of an inspector of police concerning his son, he said: "I wish to know nothing of this infamous creature formerly bearing my name. I have not considered him my son since I drove him from my house March 1. The reason for his being cast out was purely domestic, and I beg to be excused from disclosing it. I do not know whether he was connected with the attempt on the lives of the King and Queen, as I have considered him dead since he was cast out, March 1."

The Young King of Spain realizes he is a doomed man. To Mr. Whitridge, the special American envoy, he said, speaking of the attempted assassination: "Yes, fortunately, it was unsuccessful, but it will come again. It may be at any time—perhaps tomorrow, perhaps within a month, perhaps within a year—but it will come."

With calm resignation the Spanish monarch, only a few days after his marriage to the beautiful English Princess, thus gloomily forecasts his future. To his bride, after the attempt upon his life, Alfonso said: "Why did I bring you to this country? I was wrong, you never should have come."

Tariff Reform.

A dinner was given by the tariff reform committee by the Reform Club Saturday night at the Hotel Astor in New York to inaugurate a movement to return to Congress at the election members pledged to tariff-reform legislation.

Henry B. B. Stapler, chairman of the reform committee, presided, and the speakers included ex-Gov. William L. Douglas, of Massachusetts; Representatives John Sharp Williams and J. F. Rainey. Letters of regret were read from former President Grover Cleveland, Alton B. Parker, and Henry Watterson.

The following are extracts from these letters:

"I am convinced that the value to our people of wholesome tariff reform was never more easily made apparent than now, and there never was a more opportune time for its earnest advocacy.—Grover Cleveland."

"A protective tariff has been a fruitful nourishing mother of all our serious evils. Its malign influence has made possible the corruption of the electors by money furnished by the faithful.—Alton B. Parker."

"A protective tariff system which underlies all sorts of conditions of dishonest money-making.—Henry Watterson."

In his speech Mr. Williams said:

"The tariff is not only the mother of trusts, but the mother of graft. Tariff reform should be the slogan of the next campaign."

The Statehood Bill.

Conferees on the statehood bill, at 3 o'clock Saturday evening, signed a report covering all points in dispute, but exception was taken by the democrats to the agreement in relation to Arizona and New Mexico. The vote was unanimous in regard to all provisions relating to the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory. The exception taken by Senator Patterson and Representative Moon, the managers on the part of the minority, indicate that the agreement may yet encounter shoals in the Senate, where a poll shows that without democratic votes the report cannot be adopted.

The opposition to the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as one State has been led from the first by Senator Foraker.

By the agreement signed Saturday the people of these territories can vote separately on the question of statehood at the regular election on November 6, at which time territorial officers and officers of the proposed new State are elected, and a vote upon the constitution, heretofore adopted, is also to be held.

When the conference report was presented to the Senate Senator Foraker declared that it was not acceptable to him, and he would do his utmost to defeat it. Senator Bailey declared that the agreement would not be accepted by the democrats. The indications, are, therefore, that the report will precipitate another sharp contest in the Senate.

Mr. Cassatt Returns.

President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, returned home from Europe yesterday and gave out a statement on the disclosures of grafting by officials. Among other things he said:

That Pennsylvania board of directors will investigate charges against certain officials of accepting bribes from coal operators.

That any officer or employe found guilty of corrupt practices will be summarily dealt with.

That ownership of stock by officers in a position to exercise favoritism was no doubt inadvisable, but was not an offense in itself if the stocks were properly acquired.

That the wrong, if any had been done, was in an alleged favoritism.

That there could be no favoritism in rates, as shippers of coal and all other freights were on an absolute equality; all paid the full tariff rates without rebate.

That the press generally in its present hostility to the railroads was only falling in line with an anti-corporation public sentiment created by some leaders of the two great political parties.

Tribute of Respect.

At a called meeting of the Alexandria Medical Society held last Saturday evening to take suitable action on the death of Dr. Wm. R. Purvis, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, to call hence our lamented brother, it is with sad hearts and bowed heads we submit to the divine will.

Resolved, That in the death of Dr. William Reginald Parvis this society loses a most valued and useful member, one whose high professional attainments commanded the respect of his colleagues, while his gentleness and courtesy won their affection.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this society that the community, in which he labored so diligently and patiently for many years, has lost an upright citizen, a just man, whose character was cast in high and noble mold; who could not do a dishonorable act; who looked at his fellowmen with pure and steady gaze, trusting all and doubting none; who, strong in the faith of his fathers, never questioned the right of others to differ with him; whose time and professional skill were ever at the disposal of his patients, although often physically unfit for such service, who will miss the gentle touch and warm sympathy of their wise counsellor and devoted friend. To those intimately associated with him the loss is irreparable.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and that a copy be presented to the bereaved widow, and that they be published in the Alexandria Gazette.

Memorial Day at Arlington.

Confederate Memorial Day at Arlington was observed yesterday as it has been for some years. This custom attained its climax yesterday afternoon, when more than 10,000 persons, including many from this city, gathered south of the old Lee mansion in the section devoted to the Confederate dead. The exercises were conducted under the auspices of the Confederate Veterans' Association, Camp No. 171, and the other Confederate organizations in the District of Columbia. The orators were former Secretary of the Navy Hilary A. Herbert and Representative John Sharp Williams. Mrs. Roosevelt and her sister, Miss Carow, witnessed the ceremonies in an open carriage. In his speech Mr. Williams said there can be no more striking illustration of the abiding fact of a reunited people, than the Federal Valhalla at Arlington established at Lee's old home, were both union and Confederate dead rest.

Death of Mr. Pullin.

Mr. James C. Pullin died at his residence on north Royal street at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, after a short illness. The deceased was born in Highland county, Va., in 1849 He had resided in this city for the past ten years, where he conducted a green grocery store. He leaves a widow and five children—three sons and two daughters. Mr. Pullin's death was due to lockjaw, superinduced by an abscess in his right side. His funeral took place this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bulla, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The pallbearers were Messrs. R. P. W. Garnett, H. Kirk, James McWilliams, T. F. Johnson, J. F. Glover and C. R. Walker.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Elizabeth M. Wyman vs. William Wyman; final decree for divorce on ground of desertion.

W. H. Hellmuth, Hugo Herfurth and F. Didszoneit, sr., were appointed trustees for Emanuel Lutheran Church.

The will of the late Ethelbert Milburn was admitted to probate and his son, J. P. Milburn, qualified as executor. The deceased left six hundred dollars each to his sons, Frank, Parker and Mahlon; four hundred dollars to his sons, John and Ernest; one thousand to his daughter, Flora C. Simpson, and the residue of his estate to his widow.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Dr. W. R. Purvis will take place this evening at five o'clock from his late residence, No. 112 south Columbus street. The services will be conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, and the pallbearers will be Drs. W. M. Smith, Thomas Gibson, T. M. Jones and Arthur Snowden and Messrs. H. C. Ansley, G. S. French, George Uhler and W. F. Brookes. The interment will be in Ivy Hill Cemetery with full Masonic honors by Alexandria-Washington Lodge, of which the doctor was a Past Master.

Lt. Com. Holcombe Dead.

The Navy Department has received a dispatch from San Francisco reporting the death of Lieutenant-Commander John H. Lee Holcombe, United States navy, at the Mare Island navy yard on Friday, of heart disease. Lieut Com Holcombe was born at Lynchburg, but entered the Navy Academy from Georgia. Shortly after the civil war his father, with his family, removed to this city where they lived for several years and where they all made many friends. Lieut. Commander Holcombe was a brother of former City Engineer Gales Holcombe.

Drowned in Eastern Branch.

James Pumphrey, twenty-one years old, of 1330 Eleventh street southeast Washington, lost his life in an attempt to swim from a boat in the Eastern Brauch of the Potomac to the Anacostia shore, a distance of eighty feet, yesterday afternoon. Weighed down by his clothes, Pumphrey, after diving into the water and reappearing on the surface, sank to the bottom despite the efforts of companions to save him. His body was recovered by the harbor police.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp will be held in Confederate Veterans building tomorrow, Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Luna Park.

Luna Park was the centre of attraction yesterday, large crowds from Alexandria and Washington having visited the resort during the day and night. All expressed themselves as pleased with their experience. Philippini's Military Band will be on the bandstand afternoon and evening, every day this week. The band is one of the finest en tour, and is led by a man who gave up his title and estates in Spain to become a life musician. With the band, the Norins, high divers, will be on the hippodrome stage afternoon and evening all week. Their act is diving from a great height into a tank of water four feet deep. They make twelve dives a day, straight, backward, somersaults and in all the fancy ways. But the great act is the fire dive by Norin, at night. The topmost platform on a huge tower, from which the usual dives are made, is 70 feet from the ground. Midway there is another platform which Norin uses for his fire dive. Dressed in an oil-soaked paper suit, he takes his position while the park lights are turned down. The tank of water has been covered with a coating of gasoline. At a signal, Norin and the gasoline tank are simultaneously set on fire and he dives headlong into the tank, a train of twelve feet of fire following him. As the two fires meet there is a great display of scattering flame, which Norin throws aloft with his hands. Roy Knabenshue and Lincoln Beachey, the most intrepid aeronauts since the days of Santos Dumont's famous flight around Eiffel tower in Paris, will make two ascensions daily from June 12 to June 18 inclusive at Luna Park.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Richard Pines, colored, arrested by Officers Nicholson and Jones charged, with carrying concealed weapons and for threatening John Bryant, was fined $25.

John Daniel and Robert Bryant, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

Lawrence Bright, arrested by Officers Roberts and Nicholson charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Wm. Digge, colored, arrested by Officer Knight charged with abusive and vulgar language towards B. Abramson, was dismissed.

River Notes.

The old wharf at Fort Foote, Md., opposite this city, now used by the United States army engineer corps as a target range and drill grounds, is being rebuilt and put in order for service.

It is reported that the big schooner Daylight is lying at the icehouses on the Kennebec river loading a cargo of ice for this port.

The schooner Luther Garretson, from Hillsboro, N. B, for this port, with a cargo of plaster aboard, is reported in the lower river.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., with lumber to Smoot & Co. and H. K Field & Co., has arrived.

Federation of Labor.

The Virginia State Federation of Labor meet in annual session at the headquarters of the Alexandria Trades Council in the Alexandria National Bank building tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. About sixty delegates are expected to attend the meeting. The election of State officers will probably take place Wednesday afternoon. President Samuel Gompers and Secretary F Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, have been invited to address the delegates.

Pleasant Sunday.

The weather yesterday was clear and mild, a northwesterly breeze rendering the temperature pleasant. Many visitors were in the city during the day and numbers of Alexandrians traveled to and from Washington and Luna Park, while others patronized the excursion steamers. The new ferry steamers carried large numbers during the day and far into the night, while the electric cars were kept busy by the demands made upon them for transportation.

Promoted.

Mr. W. F. H. Finke, of this city, who for a number of years past has been the division engineer of the Southern Railway Company, which position he filled with marked ability, has been promoted to the position of Tie and Timber Agent of the company, with headquarters in Washington. Mr. Finke will still make his home in Alexandria.

Children's Day.

Children's Day exercises of the M. E. Church South Sunday School yesterday were interesting and were participated in by a large concourse. The programme had been carefully prepared and all who participated acquitted themselves in a creditable manner.

Luck Money.

"Handsel" is the first money received for the day ("luck money"), that which is given back "for luck" by the seller to the buyer. Spitting upon it is the essence of the whole transaction, and it is practiced today, not only all over England, but all over the world. We know from many classical authors what virtue was believed by ancient Greeks and Romans (see Potter, "Archaeol. Graec.," 1., 417) to lie in the act, and there is also abundant evidence of the belief all through the middle ages, and now in the twentieth century it remains as strong as ever. Otto Jahn says: "I have often seen the fishwives of Ellerbeck, when they had got handgeld from my mother, how they spat upon it. They say that it brings them besonderes gluck. They will not tell the reason. Certainly it is done to keep off witchcraft." The same thing is done by modern Egyptians and by Italians. At Posilippo I gave a penny to a deaf mute. He first spat on it, then put it to his forehead, and lastly devoutly crossed himself with it, precisely (except the crossing) as is done by modern Egyptians. Even in faroff Celebes the natives spit in the same way as a protective rite.—Notes and Queries.

When Watches Were New.

At first the watch was about the size of a dessert plate. It had weights and was used as a "pocket clock." The earliest known use of the modern name occurs in the record of 1552, which mentions that Edward VI. had "one larum or watch of iron, the case being likewise of iron gilt, with two plummets of lead." The first watches may readily be supposed to have been of rude execution. The first great improvement, the substitution of springs for weights, was in 1550. The earliest springs were not coiled, but only straight pieces of steel. Early watches had only one hand, and, being wound up twice a day, they could not be expected to keep time nearer than fifteen or twenty minutes in the twelve hours. The dials were of silver or brass. The cases had no crystals, but opened at the back and front and were four or five inches in diameter. A plain watch cost the equivalent of $1,000 in our currency, and after one was ordered it took a year to make it.

Trolling For Tarpon.

It is not easy to hook a tarpon while trolling, for his mouth is very hard, says Julian A. Dimock in Country Life In America, and much skill may doubtless here be shown. In the playing of the fish the work is about the same as in still fishing save that more care must be used, as the hook is probably not firmly imbedded. An old fisherman told me that he liked to be sure of his fish and so preferred still fishing, but to my mind it is one of the objections to that method. Another and stronger objection is the disturbance of my feelings in thinking that I am pulling against a fish's "in'ards." If the line does break the chance of the victim's being able to free himself from the hook is problematical, while in trolling it is the work of a minute after the strain is off the line until a sore mouth is the only symptom remaining.

Wellman's Airship Programme.

On Dane's Island, at the north of Spitzbergen, Walter Wellman announces in the Illustrated London News that he will establish his headquarters for the start of his aerial dash for the North Pole. A ship bearing sectional machine shops, gas apparatus and provisions will leave Tromso for this point on June 5, and on the 25th the airship itself will leave Tromso. This he describes as "a very gargantua of airships," being 164 feet long and 52 feet in diameter. The outer surface is smooth, there being no netting or cordage to hold moisture or snow. The cover consists of four thicknesses of a material composed of silk and rubber, bands of silks covering all sewing holes. The bag, which is elliptical in shape, requires 224,000 cubic feet of hydrogen for an inflation, to make which 100 tons of sulphuric acid and 65 tons of iron shavings are utilized. The second wireless station will be on Dane's Island, the first being at Hammerfest, Norway, and the third on the airship itself. The antenna, instead of being erected above the frame of the ship, will be a wire unrolled below it. The car is a strong frame of steel tubing, and has engine room and living room walled and roofed with fire proof fabric. Underneath the car will hang the lightest and strongest boat ever built, sixteen and one-half feet long, non-capsizable and non-sinkable, and capable of carrying over a ton. On its deck are two motor sledges. The motors will total eighty horsepower. The front screw is eighteen and one-half feet in diameter and the rear screw fourteen and one-half feet in diameter.

She Gave Up the Diamond.

"Yes, I'll undergo an operation, so that Combs can have his diamond; anything to be released from the miserable place I am in," said Miss Mae Thomas, the woman who swallowed a $250 diamond in the jewelry store of T. L. Combs & Co., in Omaha three weeks ago.

Dr. W. C Henry, one of the most eminent surgeons in Omaha, when asked if he could perform the operation on Miss Thomas, the fact being cited that she had no money, that her 3-year-old child at Houston, Texas, was at death's door and that she would be set free just as soon as the jewel was returned to its rightful owner, said.

"I will be glad to perform the operation. I do not consider the operation difficult, and Miss Thomas will be none the worse for her experience."

About 11 o'clock yesterday morning Miss Thomas was taken to the Omaha General Hospital, where the diamond was removed. It lay about one and a half inches above the appendix, tightly clinging to the wall of the intesaine.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50 and $1.00 at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Japan to Attack China

According to advices received at Victoria, B. C, by the steamer Kanagawa Thursday the Eastern World, German paper of Yokohama, published a sensational leading article stating that Japan is getting the army and navy into readiness with a view to forcing war into China two or three years hence.

The Eastern World says another war with China would offer promising prizes, and a pretext could be soon found. The paper goes on to say that Japan's hopeless indebtedness to England and America is driving the country to plan an attack on China. By this, the Eastern World says, Japan could exact a heavy indemnity and also make permanent the precarious tenure of Port Arthur and the Liaotung peninsula. China is marked to pay the piper for the recent war, the Yokohama paper says, and there will be no question of the rights or wrongs of the case. Japan must have money, many hundreds of millions of money, and a war with China, which would not only pay for itself, but would also pay off the present debt and practically make China the treasury of Japan, would be popular.

Wonders of Baalbec.

Baalbec, or Baalbek, is the name given a ruined city lying in ancient Coele-Syria, forty-five miles northwest of Damascus. There is nothing particularly remarkable about a ruined city being found in the locality mentioned, but the size of the blocks of stone used by the ancient builders of this particular city is something that has puzzled the modern engineers since the day when Baalbec was first made the Mecca of the oriental traveler. There are immense stones on every side of the visitor to this ancient pile of ruins, but the three most remarkable blocks—said to be the largest ever used in the construction of a building—are in a wall back of the temple of Baal. These immense stones are respectively sixty-four, sixty-three and sixty-two feet in length and each is thirteen feet in thickness, but the most wonderful thing in connection with them is the fact that they are at a place in the wall twenty-five feet from the ground. How these immense blocks of granite were ever raised to such a height is a question that has never yet been answered.

The Cocoanut.

The cocoanut tree is the most useful of all plants in the tropical region. Its seed furnishes food and an intoxicating drink. The shell gives drinking cups and vessels and a hard material capable of a high polish, from which personal ornaments may be manufactured. The trunk furnishes wood for dwellings and boats. The leaves make clothing, cordage and ropes. The fibers of the bark and of the nut afford matting and carpets. The buds furnish a succulent vegetable, and from the trunk a palatable liquor is drawn by making an incision.

As Good as Married.

First Sailor—No, Bill, yer don't really know what life is till yer get spliced. Second Sailor—W'y, shiver me timbers, messmate! I've never been married, true, but I've had yeller fever and cholera, I've been frostbit, drowned, burned alive, eat by a shark, blowed up at sea and operated on for cancer. Wot more does a reasonable chap want?—London Answers.

YES,
We Probably Have It.

A good many people make the mistake of going to Washington to get something they could buy at home, do not look for it here, just jump to the conclusion that such things are not to be had in Alexandria.

We would like to state to those contemplating purchasing a fine watch, or diamond, or other fine piece of jewelry, clock, silverware, cut glass, etc., that we have a large and complete stock of the above mentioned goods and which we offer at a lower price than is asked for the same goods in Washington.
